

St. Aidan's Stars Bulletin

In the Love and Truth of Jesus we grow

What a brilliant first full week back.

It was lovely for Fr Shaun to come back this morning and say Mass with the school to mark his time as Parish Priest. We presented him with a framed print of St. Aidan which had a lovely message and the prayer of our patron on the back. He really will be missed and we wish him the best of luck in his new parish.

It was also really nice to meet Fr Vincent. He had a tour of the school and we look forward to getting to know him over the coming months.

Well done to our fantastic winners today. A special mention to Miss Halliwell and Miss Lawson, our apprentices, who have had fantastic feedback on their recent assignments for their tutors.

Have a lovely weekend.

Mr Moran.

Our fantastic award winners this week – given for lots of wonderful things, please ask why if your child was a winner.

Class News

Seedlings – Another fantastic week of settling in new friends and adapting to change – well done Nursery!

Saplings – This week we have settled into our morning jobs well and we have made a fantastic start at Phonics. Our letter formation is improving every day.

Sycamores – This week we read some Revolting Rhymes for Roald Dahl day. We have been continuing to settle in and learn our new Year 1 routines.

Poplars – This week we have thought about new beginnings and our new beginnings in Year 2 are going great!

Maples – A great week working with Year 3 on their Autumn poetry.

Elms – This week we have found out loads of information about our House Saints and we wrote fantastic resolution poems for the new year.

Hawthorns – This week, we have written some fantastic rhyming poems and worked on place value in Maths. Overall, a really lovely week with some amazing attitudes to learning!

Chestnuts – Year 6 have thrived during our poetry unit and came up with some fantastic examples of figurative language.

Attendance

Saplings – 98.26%

Sycamores – 94.33%

Poplars – 100%

Maples – 93.93%

Elms – 96.67%

Hawthorns – 94.48%

Chestnuts – 92.33%

Well done to Miss Givens' class this week!